

Patient Case

Thank you for the detailed case information and rubric. Unfortunately, there is no transcript of the student's interaction with the simulated patient provided yet. As soon as you include the conversation transcript between the student and patient, along with any orders the student placed, I would be happy to analyze and assess their performance using the specified rubric. Please feel free to provide that additional information whenever it's available.